

Ap Us Government And Politics Notes

King George - reluctantly signed the constitution as independent

Federal which counts

Congress people who make up laws for other people

Convent that constituted congress only met when it affected everyone

Constitution wasn't ratificed until after the war they were trying to unite

They affected them all but all differently - 13 different constitutions

Thomas Jefferson Declaration of Independence Thomas should have individual rights

Constitutional separation is essential thing. Getting legally justified being independent

Constitution

- Implied
- Federalism
- International law
- Supreme Court decisions

Constitution

- Dealing
- Written

Thomas Jefferson had a complaint so that they would think about changing it Constitutional and courts to be the same but just without Britain

The articles of confederation was 1777 created document because patriots didn't want to create a full fledged government only a loose confederacy

Explicit law

- Written

Applied law

- What we think it means

State law implied

Articles of confederation is more written but actually a lot of restrictions

Constitution is federal document because it sets up a government under the articles

The preamble - protection of others and each other

Federalism - wanted a strong federal government

Federalists - wanted a strong federal government

Anti-federalists - wanted a weak federal government

Legislature was the most important in constitution because it was put first and was the largest for executive was put last had all the power like legislature

Constitution showed a new script for but constitution was not correct and required lot of rights
